Please explain how the event has significant community profile. Please explain.

The 2023 NDBL Allstar games, hosted by the Baysox, provide the community with a much needed outdoor activity. Baseball, "like the Jays play", is drawing numerous fans already to Tom Williams Park for our home games. The Allstar games will significantly shine the spotlight on Senior Mens Baseball and provide the next step for our Owen Sound Minor Baseball players future development.

Describe how the event is a community of celebration of special importance that will benefit the community. Please explain.

Owen Sound has made significant investments into Tom Williams Park for its future use and viability. The Baysox, Owen Sound Minor Baseball, Baseball fans and Owen Sound sports fans in general love to support local teams. We intend to grow the number of kids and adults playing Baseball. The Allstar games are the perfect showcase for Baseball in Owen Sound and area.

Is the event a public gathering to participate in athletic, social, religious, cultural, recreation, educational or one with other "community objectives. Please explain.

The NDBL Allstar Baseball games are an athletic gathering with an expected public crowd of up to 200+ fans in attendance plus hundreds more locals watching the live broadcast on Rogers Cable.
