8.a Fire

8.a.1 Report CR-24-084 from the Fire Chief Re: Fire and Emergency Services Mid-Year Operations Update

The Fire Chief provided an overview of the report.

In response to a question from Committee, Mr. Eagleson advised that first responders have access to peer support and mental health resources for job-related trauma. Mental health resources for members of the public who experience trauma directly or indirectly may have access to supports through the Canadian Mental Health Association and Victim Services Bruce Grey.

In response to a question from Committee, Mr. Eagleson noted that the Fire Department fleet is currently comprised of two engines, two aerial trucks, and one boat.

In response to a question from Committee, Mr. Eagleson advised that an agreement between the City and Central Ambulance Dispatch dictates what kind of medical/resuscitator calls the Fire Department responds to. The agreement comes to Council for review and approval every two years, and approximately 40 to 50 different call types are currently included. The number of medical assist calls continues to increase.

CR-240711-002

Moved by Deputy Mayor Greig

"THAT in consideration of Staff Report CR-24-084 respecting Fire and Emergency Services Mid-Year Operations Update, the Corporate Services Committee recommends that City Council receive the report for information purposes."

8.c Clerks

8.c.1 Report CR-24-077 from the City Clerk Re: Procedural By-law Review

The City Clerk provided an overview of the report.

In response to a question from the Committee, the City Clerk advised that Recommendation #1 relates to items appearing on the agenda and not to public questions.

In response to a question from the Committee, the City Manager noted that the Council table is the place for Council business to be addressed.

In response to a question from the Committee, Ms. Bloomfield advised that the current Procedural By-law does not include language that explicitly allows the Clerk, Mayor and City Manager discretion in omitting items from the agenda. Ms. Bloomfield noted that the City does not currently have a formal mechanism through which to reject or redirect requests to have a matter appear on the Council agenda.

Councillor Middlebro' relinquished the position of Chair so that she could move a motion. Vice Chair Merton assumed the position of Chair.
